Season Award Ideas

The coach picks one award per child. Everyone gets the same kind of certificate, personalized.

Three rules

1. One award per child, and the same kind of certificate for everyone.
2. No rankings: no MVP, top scorer or “best player.” Nothing about looks, size or speed compared with other kids, and no jokes at a child’s expense.
3. Name something specific from their season: effort, teamwork, a skill they worked on, a moment everyone remembers.

Effort	Teamwork	Skills	Attitude
Never-Give-Up Award	Great Teammate Award	Brick Wall Award	Sunshine Award
Always Ready to Try Award	High-Five Award	Dribble Magician Award	Kindness Award
Full-Speed Award	Team Cheerleader Award	Big Kick Award	Good Sport Award
Chase-It-Down Award	Pass-It-On Award	Quick Feet Award	Team Spirit Award
Brave Try Award	Welcome Wagon Award	Open Space Award	Listening Ears Award

Handing them out

Call each child up, read the award and one sentence about why, and let the team cheer. About 30 seconds a child: a team of ten is done in five minutes.
